

Lodi Resident Mrs. Ann Lipari to celebrate 102nd Birthday.

Best wishes are in order for birthday girl Ann Lipari, who on November 14, 2022 will celebrate 102 years of gracing us with her marvelous presence.

Ann was born Anna Palumbo on November 14, 1920 to parents Frances and Nicholas Palumbo. She, along with siblings Charles, Thomas, Frank, and Mae were raised on Garibaldi Avenue. Ann attended Washington school and Thomas Jefferson high school in Lodi.

On April 5, 1942 Ann married Passaic resident Jack Lipari the couple were blessed with two children, son Jack and wife Geraldine and daughter Camille Nuara and husband Joe of Lodi. Ann has 5 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

“I had a good life,” said Ann at a recent interview. “Worked hard, met marvelous people and enjoyed lasting friendships.” A day doesn’t go by without Ann thanking God for her myriad blessings. Ann’s secret to her long and rewarding life is no secret at all: “Love of God and Family”

“One thing I learned at an early age,” says Ann, “never give up on your dreams. There is no such word as can’t.”

Happy birthday, Ann. May God continue to bless you and your family.
