

LODI MEMORIAL LIBRARY REOPENING - PATRON POLICY

Stay home if you are sick. If you or anyone in your household is sick or has COVID-19 symptoms, do not enter the library.

Wear a mask. Face coverings that completely cover the mouth and nose are required while in the Library. Masks, bandanas or scarves are acceptable. Hats, shirts, or other clothing are not acceptable face coverings.

Wash your hands. Frequent handwashing is your first line of defense against infection.

Use hand sanitizer. Hand sanitizer is provided at sanitizing stations throughout the library.

Limit your stay. Toys are not available in order to facilitate a clean and sanitary environment. The library is open for selecting, picking up, and borrowing library materials and for computer use. Library services will be gradually expanded.

Follow Social Distancing. Maintain physical distancing of at least 6 feet from other patrons and staff at all times. Follow staff guidance, posted signs, and floor markings to ensure adequate spacing. Patrons are not to congregate.

Upon entrance to the library, all visitors must get temperature check. Anyone with a temperature over 100 will not be admitted into the building.

Restrooms: Public restrooms are available for one person at a time.

Meeting Room: All meeting rooms are closed to the public.

Library Materials Browsing: The library is open for browsing, picking up materials and reference services.

Parents with children must ensure that their children maintain social distance with other patrons.

Youth Groups: Children in Grade 5 and under are not allowed to enter the library without a parent, guardian or other responsible adult who will supervise their behavior while in the library. All children and teens must follow social distancing guidelines and are not allowed to hang out in groups.

Computer Use: Public computer sessions are limited to one hour. Patrons will be provided with computer keyboard and mouse protective covers. You are to dispose of the covers yourself when your computer session is over.
